

Away

An apple a day keeps the doctor away
Burn not your house to fright the mouse away
Constant dripping wears away the stone
He that fights and runs away may live to fight another day
The promise of the night is rubbed with butter which melts away when the day shines on it
Salt water and absence wash away love
A soft answer turneth away wrath
When the cat is away the mice will play
Blue are the hills that are far away
Candlemas day put beans in the clay put candles and candle-sticks away
When the cat's away the mice will play
Constant dropping wears away a stone
Whosoever draws his sword against the prince must throw the scabbard away
He who fights and runs away may live to fight another day
God is high above and the tsar is far away
The mountains are high and the emperor is far away
Sell in may and go away
Sweep the house with broom in may you sweep the head of the house away
While two dogs are fighting for a bone a third runs away with it
