Fair

All is fair in love and war
Beauty may have fair leaves yet bitter fruit
Faint heart ne'er won fair lady
A fair face is half a fortune
A fair face may hide a foul heart
Fair faces need no paint
Fair in the cradle and foul in the saddle
Fair water makes all clean
Fair words and foul deeds cheat wise men as well as fools
He who gives fair words feeds you with an empty spoon
Hoist your sail when the wind is fair
None but the brave deserves the fair
Speak fair and think what you like
None but the brave deserve the fair
Monday's child is fair of face
A fair exchange is no robbery
Faint heart never won fair lady
Fair and softly goes far in a day
All's fair in love and war
Fair play's a jewel
Give and take is fair play
If saint paul's day be fair and clear it will betide a happy year

Saint swithun's day if thou be fair for forty days it will remain saint swithun's day if thou bring rain for forty days it will remain

Turn about is fair play
