

Fall

Between two stools you fall to the ground

Every slip is not a fall

Fall not out with a friend for a trifle

He that is down need fear no fall

Hew not too high lest the chips fall in thine eye

If the blind lead the blind both shall fall into the ditch

To fall into sin is human to remain in sin is devilish

United we stand divided we fall

When thieves fall out honest men come by their own

The bigger they are the harder they fall

When the blind lead the blind both shall fall into the ditch

Fall down seven times get up eight

Pride goes before a fall

A reed before the wind lives on while mighty oaks do fall
