

Faults

Denials make little faults great

Every man has his faults

It is the height of merit in a man that his faults can be numbered

Know your own faults before blaming others for theirs

Money covers all faults