Beware of evil that may come from one whom you helped
A blow from a lover is as sweet as the eating of raisins
The first step to virtue is to abstain from vice
Flee from honour honour will follow you
A friend that you buy will be bought from you
From the sublime to the ridiculous is but a step
Gifts from enemies are dangerous
God defend me from my friends from my enemies i can defend myself
Great gifts are from great men
The greatest hate springs from the greatest love
Haste is from the devil
Keep aloof from quarrels be neither a witness nor a party to them
May god defend me from my friends i can defend myself from my enemies
No flying from fate
No gratitude from the wicked
Respect is greater from a distance
Some people cannot see the wood from the trees
What can you expect from a hog but a grunt
Whatever comes from the heart goes to the heart
The apple never falls far from the tree
You cannot get blood from a stone
From clogs to clogs is only three generations

The early man never borrows from the late man

What can you expect from a pig but a grunt

The fish always stinks from the head downwards

Great oaks from little acorns grow

The nearer the church the farther from god

Save us from our friends

From the sublime to the ridiculous is only a step

From the sweetest wine the tartest vinegar

From shirtsleeves to shirtsleeves in three generations

Beware of an oak it draws the stroke avoid an ash it counts the flash creep under the thorn it can save you from harm
