Make

As you make your bed so you must lie in it Before you make a friend eat a bushel of salt with him Clothes do not make the man Conscience does make cowards of us all The cowl does not make the monk The cunning wife make her husband her apron Denials make little faults great Don't make a mountain out of a molehill Don't make a rod for your own back Don't make yourself a mouse or the cat will eat you Empty vessels make the most sound Equals make the best friends Fine feathers make fine birds Good fences make good neighbours Great hopes make great men Great pain and little gain will make a man soon weary Hollow things make the biggest sounds It takes all sorts to make a world It takes three generations to make a gentleman It takes two to make a quarrel Make a page of your own age	Alms never make poor

It takes two to make a quarrel	It takes all sorts to make a world
	It takes three generations to make a gentleman
Make a page of your own age	It takes two to make a quarrel
	Make a page of your own age

Make haste slowly
Make hay while the sun shines
Make no fire raise no smoke
Make not a fool of yourself to make others merry
Make the best of a bad bargain
Make the best of a bad job
Make your enemy your friend
Make yourself all honey and the flies will devour you
Manners and money make a gentleman
Many hands make light work
Men make houses women make homes
Never make threats you cannot carry out
Never make two bites of a cherry
One swallow does not make a summer
Success make a fool seem wise
Two blacks do not make a white
Two negatives make an affirmative
Two wrongs do not make a right
You can lead a horse to the water but you cannot make him drink
You cannot make a crab walk straight
You cannot make an omelet without breaking eggs
You may lead a horse to the water but you cannot make him drink
You cannot make bricks without straw
It is good to make a bridge of gold to a flying enemy
Clothes make the man

Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad
Hard cases make bad law
You can take a horse to the water but you can not make him drink
If life hands you lemons make lemonade
As you make your bed so you must lie upon it
Because a man is born in a stable that does not make him a horse
If you do not make mistakes you do not make anything
Nine tailors make a man
You cannot make an omelette without breaking eggs
Praise the child and you make love to the mother
Short reckonings make long friends
You can not make a silk purse out of a sow's ear
It takes two to make a bargain
Wanton kittens make sober cats
Eat and drink with your relatives make business with strangers
