

Night

The day obliterates the promise of the night

If you sing before breakfast you will cry before night

The promise of the night is rubbed with butter which melts away when the day shines on it

Barnaby bright barnaby bright the longest day and the shortest night

Night brings counsel

Red sky at night shepherd's delight red sky in the morning shepherd's warning

Sing before breakfast cry before night