

Nor

Believe not all that you see nor half what you hear

Give neither counsel nor salt till you are asked for it

Go not for every grief to the physician for every quarrel to the lawyer nor for every thirst to the pot

He that is not handsome at twenty nor strong at thirty nor rich at forty nor wise at fifty will never be handsome strong rich or wise

Keep aloof from quarrels be neither a witness nor a party to them

Neither a borrower nor a lender be

Neither bribe nor lose thy right

Trust not a new friend nor an old enemy

Corporations have neither bodies to be punished nor souls to be damned

If in february there be no rain 'tis neither good for hay nor grain

The race is not to the swift nor the battle to the strong

A whistling woman and a crowing hen are neither fit for god nor men

When the wind is in the east 'tis neither good for man nor beast
