

Off

Don't cut off your nose to spite your face

God comes at last when we think he is furthest off

A good life keeps off wrinkles

Many kiss the hand they wish to cut off

Never put off till tomorrow what may be done today

Put off the evil hour as long as you can

Do not cut off your nose to spite your face

It is best to be off with the old love before you are on with the new

Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today

A slice off a cut loaf isn't missed
