

Over

Every difficulty slurred over will be a ghost to disturb your repose later on

Haste trips over its own heels

He that stumbles twice over one stone deserves to break his shins

Help a lame dog over a stile

If one sheep leaps over the ditch all the rest will follow

It is no use crying over spilt milk

The last drop makes the cup run over

Men leap over where the hedge is lowest

What the eye doesn't see the heart doesn't grieve over

Better wed over the mixen than over the moor

Drive gently over the stones

What is got over the devil's back is spent under his belly

The opera isn't over till the fat lady sings

The sharper the storm the sooner it's over

Everyone speaks well of the bridge which carries him over

One man may steal a horse while another may not look over a hedge
