Take

Do not take a book by the cover

Every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost

Give and take

Give him an inch and he'll take an ell

Give knaves an inch and they will take a yard

Give me health and take my wealth

It is better to give than to take

Take care of the pence and the pounds will take care of themselves

Take heed of the snake in the grass

Take not a musket to kill a butterfly

Take the bull by the horns

Take the rough with the smooth

Take the will for the deed

Take things as they come

Take things as you find them

Take time by the forelock

Wait and let things take their course

We cannot always take what we want

You must take the fat with the lean

You must take the will for the deed

Blessings brighten as they take their flight

You can take the boy out of the country but you can not take the country out of the boy

Devil take the hindmost

Every man for himself and devil take the hindmost

Give and take is fair play

Give a thing and take a thing to wear the devil's gold ring

If you would be happy for a week take a wife if you would be happy for a month kill a pig but if you would be happy all your life plant a garden

You can take a horse to the water but you can not make him drink

Take the goods the gods provide
