Till

All are presumed good till they are found in fault
Call no man happy till he is dead
Call the bear “uncle” till you are safe across the bridge
Defer not till tomorrow what may be done today
Don't cross a bridge till you come to it
Do not halloo till you are out of the wood
A friend is never known till needed
Give neither counsel nor salt till you are asked for it
He that eats till he is sick must fast till he is well
Health is not valued till sickness comes
Leave not till tomorrow what can be done today
My son is my son till he has got him a wife but my daughter is my daughter all the days of her life
Never put off till tomorrow what may be done today
Never trouble trouble till trouble troubles you
Seek till you find and you'll not lose your labour
You never know what you can till you try
Ne'er cast a clout till may be out
Do not cross the bridge till you come to it
Call no man happy till he dies
You never know what you can do till you try
You never miss the water till the well runs dry
Money like manure does no good till it is spread

The opera isn't over till the fat lady sings

Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today

Do not sell the skin till you have caught the bear

September blow soft till the fruit's in the loft

My son is my son till he gets him a wife but my daughter's my daughter all the days of her life

One story is good till another is told
