

Us

Conscience does make cowards of us all
Custom reconciles us to everything
The fire which lights us at a distance will burn us when near Give us the tools and we will finish the job
God reaches us good things by our own hands
Sickness tells us what we are Conscience makes cowards of us all
Every man for himself and god for us all
Save us from our friends