Well

All's well that ends well
As well be hanged for a sheep as a lamb
Cast no dirt in the well that gives you water
Do as most men do then most men will speak well of you
Fair words and foul deeds cheat wise men as well as fools
A fool may throw a stone into a well which a hundred wise men cannot pull out
For ill do well then fear not hell
Good to begin well better to end well
Hatred is blind as well as love
He cannot speak well that cannot hold his tongue
He that eats till he is sick must fast till he is well
He thinks not well that thinks not again
If a thing is worth doing it is worth doing well
If the lad go to the well against his will either the can will break or the water will spell
If you want a thing well done do it yourself
It is as well to know which way the wind blows
Pay beforehand was never well served
The pitcher goes so often to the well that it is broken at last
Say well or be still
Speak well of the dead
There is a sin of omission as well as of commission
Well begun is half done

What is worth doing is worth doing well

The devil was sick the devil a saint would be the devil was well the devil a saint

The frog in the well knows nothing of the sea

One might as well be hanged for a sheep as a lamb

Let well alone

He lives long who lives well

You never miss the water till the well runs dry

The pitcher will go to the well once too often

If you would be well served serve yourself

Spare well and have to spend

Everyone speaks well of the bridge which carries him over

If a thing's worth doing it's worth doing well

Truth lies at the bottom of a well

If you want a thing done well do it yourself

One white foot buy him two white feet try him three white feet look well about him four white feet go without him
