

Other

The apples on the other side of the wall are sweetest
Every stranger is the relative of every other stranger
Half the world knows not how the other half lives
Love each other as brothers trade as strangers
Other times other manners
A rose by any other name would smell as sweet
Sadness and gladness succeed each other
Six of one and half a dozen of the other
Wise men learn by other men's mistakes fools by their own
The grass is always greener on the other side of the fence
One half of the world does not know how the other half lives
One hand washes the other
A king's chaff is worth more than other men's corn
