

Others

A candle lights others and consumes itself
If you steal for others you will be hanged yourself
It is easy to bear the misfortunes of others
Know your own faults before blaming others for theirs
Make not a fool of yourself to make others merry
The misfortunes of some bring benefits to others
Never lay sorrow to your heart when others lay it to their heels
Do unto others as you would they should do unto you