|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Believe not all that you see nor half what you hear |
| Cherish what you have and struggle for better |
| Defer not till tomorrow what may be done today |
| Enquire not what is in other's pot |
| He that has no children knows not what is love |
| He who peeps through a hole may see what will vex him |
| He who says what he likes shall hear what he does not like |
| If you cannot get what you desire desire what you find |
| It is a fraud to borrow what we are not able to repay |
| Leave not till tomorrow what can be done today |
| Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth |
| Man does what he can and god what he will |
| Never put off till tomorrow what may be done today |
| The pleasure of what we enjoy is lost by coveting more |
| Practice what you preach |
| Sickness tells us what we are |
| Speak fair and think what you like |
| Things are seldom what they seem |
| Think not on what you lack as much as on what you have |
| Vessels leak of what they hold |
| We cannot always take what we want |
| We soon believe what we desire |

What can you expect from a hog but a grunt

What can't be cured must be endured

What costs little is little esteemed

What is a workman without his tools

What is bred in the bone will never come out of the flesh

What is not right must be wrong

What is the good of a sundial in the shade

What is worth doing is worth doing well

What man has done man can do

What may be done at any time is done at no time

What must be must be

What soberness conceals drunkenness reveals

What the eye doesn't see the heart doesn't grieve over

What will mrs Grundy say

A woman conceals what she knows not

You never know what you can till you try

Your looking-glass will tell you what none of your friends will

Be what you would seem to be

Believe nothing of what you hear and only half of what you see

Be careful what you pray for you might get it

What can not be cured must be endured

You are what you eat

What everybody says must be true

What can you expect from a pig but a grunt

The fat man knoweth not what the lean thinketh
