

Advice

Advice when most needed is least heeded
Good advice is beyond all price
If advice will not improve him neither will the rod
If you wish good advice consult an old man
Nothing is given so freely as advice
When a thing is done advice comes late