

Child

A burnt child dreads the fire
The child is father of the man
Spare the rod and spoil the child
Monday's child is fair of face
The child is the father of the man
Praise the child and you make love to the mother
It takes a whole village to bring up a child
It is a wise child that knows its own father