

Fools

Children and fools cannot lie
Children and fools have merry lives
Experience is the teacher of fools
Fair words and foul deeds cheat wise men as well as fools
Fools bite one another but wise men agree together
Fools rush in where angels fear to tread
If fools went not to market bad wares would not be sold
Wise men learn by other men's mistakes fools by their own
Zeal is fit only for wise men but is found mostly in fools
Children and fools tell the truth
Fools and bairns should never see half-done work
Fools ask questions that wise men cannot answer
Fools build houses and wise men live in them
Fools for luck
Fortune favours fools
Young folks think old folks to be fools but old folks know young folks to be fools
