

Work

All work and no play makes jack a dull boy

The devil finds work for idle hands to do

Every man is the son of his own work

First plan your work then work your plan

Great gain makes work easy

Many hands make light work

The end crowns the work

The eye of a master does more work than both his hands

Fools and bairns should never see half-done work

If ifs and ands were pots and pans there'd be no work for tinkers' hands

A woman's work is never done

Work expands so as to fill the time available

It is not work that kills but worry

If you won't work you shan't eat
