

YanYu.lol

Base de données des proverbes et sagesses populaires

Your

Admonish your friends in private praise them in public
As you are so will your governors be
As you make your bed so you must lie in it
Be content with your lot one cannot be first in everything
Burn not your house to fright the mouse away
Catch your bear before you sell its skin
Choose a wife by your ear rather than by your eye
Cut your coat according to your cloth
Deliver your words not by number but by weight
Despise your purse but consider your person
Destroy the seed of evil or it will grow up to your ruin
Do not cast your pearls before swine
Don't count your chickens before they are hatched
Don't cut off your nose to spite your face
Don't make a rod for your own back
Don't put all your eggs in one basket
Don't quarrel with your bread and butter
Don't teach your grandmother to suck eggs
Don't wash your dirty linen in public
Do not wear out your welcome
Do your duty then claim you right
Dogs wag their tails no so much in love to you as to your bread

Every difficulty slurred over will be a ghost to disturb your repose later on

Every hour out of bed after midnight is a nail in your coffin

First catch your hare

First plan your work then work your plan

Go not to the extreme in your love and hate

Hide not your light under a bushel

Hitch your wagon to a star

Hoist your sail when the wind is fair

I will not pull the thorn out of your foot and put it into my own

If you cannot bite never show your teeth

Know your own faults before blaming others for theirs

Lend your money and lose your friend

Let not the sun go down on your wrath

Let not your tongue cut your throat

Let not your wits go wool-gathering

Love your neighbour yet pull not down your fence

Make a page of your own age

Make your enemy your friend

Mind your own business

Never lay sorrow to your heart when others lay it to their heels

Never spend your money before you have it

Never tell your enemy that your foot aches

Paddle your own canoe

Seek till you find and you'll not lose your labour

Stretch your legs according to your coverlet

Try your friend before you trust him

You cannot touch pitch and keep your hands clean

You must ask your neighbour if you shall live in peace

You must cut your coat according to your cloth

Your looking-glass will tell you what none of your friends will

Better to die on your feet than live on your knees

Never choose your women or your linen by candlelight

Do not count your chickens before they are hatched

Do not cut off your nose to spite your face

Feed a dog for three days and he will remember your kindness for three years feed

A cat for three years and she will forget your kindness in three days

Do not put all your eggs in one basket

If you would be happy for a week take a wife if you would be happy for a month kill a pig but if you would be happy all your life plant a garden

You cannot have your cake and eat it

Keep your own fish-guts for your own sea-maws

Keep your shop and your shop will keep you

As you make your bed so you must lie upon it

If you gently touch a nettle it'll sting you for your pains grasp it like a lad of mettle an' as soft as silk remains

You pays your money and you takes your choice

Please your eye and plague your heart

If you sit by the river for long enough you will see the body of your enemy float by

It is not spring until you can plant your foot upon twelve daisies

Stretch your arm no further than your sleeve will reach

Never let the sun go down on your anger

Do not teach your grandmother to suck eggs

Do not throw out your dirty water until you get in fresh

Trust in god but tie your camel

Put your trust in god and keep your powder dry

Walnuts and pears you plant for your heirs

Eat and drink with your relatives make business with strangers